

Wellington Weekly

If you would like to publish in this paper, contact your teacher

FEATURES THIS WEEK

LEAD STORY
Assessment week!

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

QUIZZES & PUZZLES

Assessment week!

This week it was assessment week! Lots of children were really nervous about their upcoming exams but many were really pleased with the results they got. Lots of parents are also really proud of their childrens' high scores and all the teachers are amazed with the scores the children managed to achieve! Aamane, from Ebony class, commented, "I found the exams quite difficult, but I am happy we had them, as I now understood what conditions my SATs will be held in." Ms. Khalon, also from Ebony class, quoted "I was really pleased with my English and Maths groups' results. I was amazed at how much they had achieved in just one term! I hope they can keep it up!"

Well done everyone!

☺ Riddles!

Q: I am a seven letter word containing thousands of letters. What am I?

A: A mailbox!

Q: What begins with T, ends with T, and has T in it?

A: A teapot!

Family Learning Links

<http://www.mymaths.co.uk/> Username: welli Password: one
<http://www.bugclub.co.uk/>

We hope you learn lots of new things from these websites!

Reception tour!

This week, the reception tour took place. Lots of children were extremely excited to see and have a tour of Wellington school! Both parents and children were really excited to find out about the teachers and the different classes and the toys in them! Nicole commented, "I found it really fun and I can't wait to go to the same school as my other sisters!"

Saint Andrew's Day!

This week, it was Saint Andrews day! St Andrew is the patron saint of Scotland and he was celebrated on 30th November 2016. Not alot is known about Saint Andrew, but he was one of Jesus Christs disciples. Many people were really excited about this day as it is an important part of Scottish history.

