Two black rhino babies bring hope to endangered species

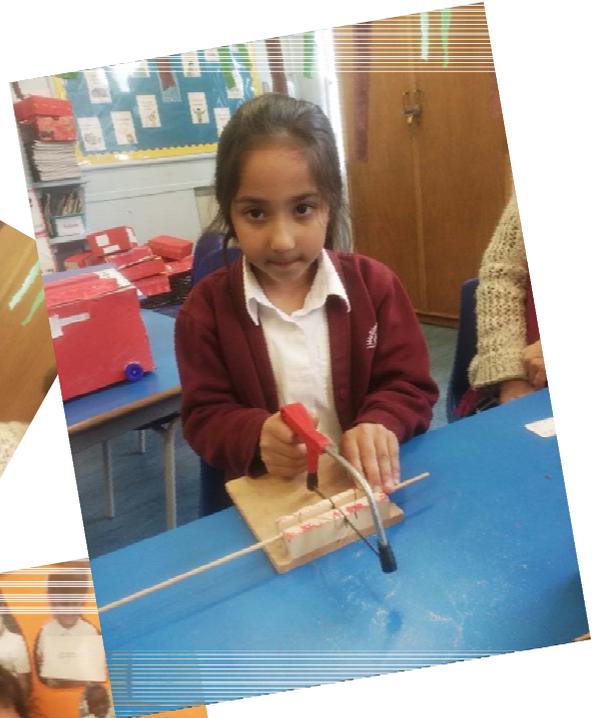

The birth of two black rhino babies in Tanzania, east Africa, is bringing hope for the critically endangered species. Calves have come from two female black rhinos that were bred and brought up at a British wildlife park, Port Lympne in Kent. Four years ago, they were moved from the UK to Tanzania. They even got a royal send-off from the Duke of Cambridge, who is a passionate campaigner for animal rights. Conservationists hoped that the two rhinos would settle into the wild and have babies... and now they both have!

Doctor Who teams up with a superhero in Christmas special

This year's Christmas special episode of Doctor Who, will see the Doctor teaming up with a superhero. The special, called The Return of Doctor Mysterio, will be shown on BBC One on Christmas Day. It sees The Doctor working together with a superhero called Doctor Mysterio to save New York from a deadly alien threat. The dynamic duo will be joined on their quest by an investigative journalist, played by actress Charity Wakefield.

Year 6 Stixx Workshop

This week, Year 6 were visited by an engineer called Jeremy King. He taught them valuable lessons that they would need later in life. Some examples of these are: listening, prefabrication which meant thinking ahead. Mannat, in Ebony Class, stated 'It was a fun workshop, and we made our own 3D shapes using newspaper which we turned into rods.' After hearing this, Year 6 must have had an exciting time at the workshop.

Harvest Festival

This week, our school had generously donated tin cans for the people who need food. The school has all participate in this, with a lot of help from your parents and guardians. Some example of the food that you had donated are: Tinned cans, Soup, pasta and more, with these we hope, as a school we have made a big change. Adam, in Pine Class stated 'It feels good to be able to help people around us'. We should all feel this way after being part of something that can make a big change.

Question of the week:

If you had a chance to create an imaginary friend? Who would it be?

Try and use a thinking map
Send your answers to Mr Berryman

Halloween 2016: Join in a spooky fun run for Michael Sobell Hospice

Fancy doing something a little different this Halloween? Michael Sobell Hospice is raising money for its specialist care centre with a fun, spooky colour run. The race will see participants covered from head-to-toe in ghoulish coloured powder as they run, jog or walk along the route, and will have prizes on offer for the person dressed in the best costume! Entrants will start and finish at the hospice in Northwood on Sunday October 30. The event will see runners taking on one, two or three laps of the approximately 2km-long course. There will also be a 'mini' dash of 2km for children.

RSPCA auction one-of-a-kind illustrations online to fight against the underground puppy trade

Animal-lovers can get their hands on a beautiful illustration for a good cause, as the RSPCA are holding an auction to raise awareness of the underground puppy trade. More than 30 illustrators and celebrities have donated artworks to the animal welfare charity to raise money for the Scrap the Puppy trade campaign.

Wellington Wins Geography Silver Award!

In these schools teachers ensure policies impact on pupil learning and are not afraid to take risks, and innovate and challenge to achieve progress in geography. Key threads through the curriculum are inter-cultural understanding, local fieldwork, environmental issues and dilemmas connected with sustainability. These are explored in a variety of places across the world from local to global. These schools use creative approaches to stimulate learning and place a high value on using real life issues to promote understanding.

Jigsaw Weekly Celebrations

Each week we can all nominate children or adults we see applying the Jigsaw theme over the week. This week we are celebrating people who try to make our school community a better place (jigsaw piece 2).

In Key Stage 1 we saw:

Phildena, Miss Evans, Mrs. Pavola, Alex, Arjun, Elmadine, Azolea, Daksh.

Jigsaw Weekly Celebrations

Next week, we will celebrate Care about other people's feelings
(jigsaw piece 4).

Remember:

- Don't forget to use bug club and Purple Mash. Purple Mash will help you with your new Topic and bug club will help you with your reading.
- Make sure you read about 5 minutes a day at home with a parent
- Do not forget to do your homework and bring it in on the date it is due in.
- Please wear either a burgundy coat or a black coat to school, no other colours are acceptable.
