World Book Day 1st March 2018

Last week we celebrated World Book day which was on Thursday. We all dressed up as book character of our choice and have been taking part in a range of activities all based around books. In the afternoon, key stage 2 had a huge tea party as well. After school, we even had an amazing book fair in the studio where we all had the chance to use our £1 off book token. You can see some pictures and details of our activities in the following slides

As part of book day Chestnut designed their own fairy tale character. The class then voted for the best one and Lakshmi Nagula won. Congratulations!

World news !

The real Hotel for dogs

We all love going on holiday and it's even better if you have somewhere really nice to stay! Check out this five-star hotel in China. It looks great but it's not for people, it's for dogs! There are swimming pools so the dogs can practice their doggy paddle, and it even has a cinema! This was a place for dogs to relax. The hotel also takes all of the dogs out for a walk.

Enormous egg laid in Australia

Have you EVER seen a more enormous egg?! No, we hadn't either. An absolute monster egg was laid by a chicken at Stockman's Eggs in Australia. It actually proved to be even more than it was cracked up to be when the farm owners cracked it open. The egg is at least three times the size of a regular chicken's egg. Scott and Kimberley Stockman, who run the farm, do not know which hen exactly laid the egg, as there are thousands of hens on the free-range farm laying 50,000 eggs every single day.

World Book Day Dance Workshop

On Tuesday, each class had a brilliant dance workshop. The instructor showed us different actions and emotions to show when listening to music. The music and actions were based on the Tortoise and the Hare. Throughout the day, each year had a different story to act out. Year 3 and 4 worked with 'Alice in Wonderland', and year 5 and 6 'The Butterfly Lion'.

Local news:

Snow across the UK:

e sledging race in which even the police got involved Parts of the UK have had enough snow to have a sledging race! They have their own annual sledge race, when everyone creates their own sledge out of cardboard. Even the local police were joining in! There were rainbow ones, glittery ones, police car ones (guess who that was for?). Everyone could enter no matter how old they were. If you wanted, you could have more than 1 person in your sledge. WOW! Only if it snowed like this in Hounslow.

Harry Potter themed lunch

A Harry Potter themed lunch party is hitting London, bringing with it the magic of Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. The enchanting lunch includes a day of spells, potions and wands as guests enjoy a Harry Potter themed quiz and a Great Hall feast, while some of the best scenes from the world-famous films play in the background. Guests can come dressed as their favourite character, for example: Harry Potter, Dumbledore and Hermione Granger.
