

FOOD & CATERING POLICY

INTRODUCTION

WilsonJones recognise the importance of a healthy diet and the significance connection between a healthy diet and a pupil's ability to learn effectively and achieve high standards at school. We aim to provide healthy and nutritious food and drink to all members of the school community.

- Reviewing regularly the food provided at school and making changes where appropriate
- Regularly surveying the service users to obtain customer feedback
- Keeping within the guidelines of the food standards agency
- Promote inclusive catering by provide a choice of food that always includes vegetarian options as standard

Special Dietary Requirements

- WilsonJones will where reasonably practicable, cater for the whole school, however some pupils may require a modified diet for allergy or medical reasons and therefore need to be catered for individually. Our Allergy & Intolerance Procedure provides further information on the steps to be followed in this instance.
- Many people follow diets related to their culture or religious beliefs and WilsonJones will where reasonably practicable, cater for dietary requirements related to religion or belief by providing an alternative meal option to the main meal of the day.
