

WATER

Patterns in Art

Shape Hunt

WORLD WATER DAY – IS WATER A RIGHT OR A PRIVILEGE?

JUNIORS - Amber Class did an assembly on World Water day this week and the theme this year is 'Leave no one behind', find out more here. They told us about how important water is to survive and how in some parts of the world children do not have clean drinking water and this causes them to become ill. 'I learnt that water is very valuable to us and can't waste it, discrimination is happening in different countries and this is unfair! We should all be using clean water', Phoebe (Amber Class)

'The right to clean and safe drinking water and sanitation as human right, which is essential for full enjoyment of life and all human rights (UN 2010)

NURSERY

Nursery have been sharing the story of Jack and the Beanstalk, click here to read the story and have used story maps and joining in, with the words. In maths, they have been learning all about 2D shapes and going on a shape hunt around the nursery outdoor area. Can you name these shapes?

RECEPTION

Reception have enjoyed their focus story Three Billy Goats Gruff, click here to listen to the story. Now they are very excited about a Troll coming to visit on Friday and they have been writing questions to ask him. They have also been learning to name and describe 3D shapes, Can you name these 3D shapes?

YEAR 2

In maths we have been using bar modelling for remainders. We have also been creating geometric patterns in art.

YEAR 1

We have been writing non-fiction pieces about medicine and operations linked to their topic on Florence Nightingale. In maths they have been measuring using non-standard and standard units of measure.

How many lolly sticks would you need to measure across the table?

Readathon!

How many books have you read so far?

This year, we are having a reading marathon and we are attempting to raise money for children in hospital. There will be a prize for the person who reads the most books. You should find family and adult friends who are willing to sponsor you for every book you read.

