Baby Cows Rescued From A Hole

Fire-fighters had to rescue two baby calves that had fallen into a drainage hole on a farm. They had fallen down a hole 1.5 meters deep but were shortly rescued. Neither of them was hurt seriously but they had a few grazes. They were glad to be reunited to their mothers, however.

New Peter Pan Coin Released

A new set of Peter Pan coins have been released in partnership with the Great Ormond Street Hospital to celebrate the 90th anniversary of the author gifting the rights of the book to the hospital. On each coin, there will be a picture of a character with a quote on it as well. The coins are collectible and cannot be used for payment. The coins come in 6 different varieties with 6 different characters on each one. The money raised will be used for the hospital.

Visitors

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Ofsted visitors came to our school to assess the school and to see how well our school performed. Many children talked to them about our school and showed them their work. They also checked our behaviour and were impressed with both. They even came to lunchtime to check the behaviour and came to the classrooms during each lesson.

Refugee Assembly

Yesterday, we had an assembly explaining Mo Farah's story. It showed how he managed to win two gold medals in the 5,000 and 10,000 meter race. Furthermore, telling us how he was a refugee and that he had to leave his brother behind to come to England. We had this assembly as refugee week is next week and it taught us about refugees. Refugee week raises awareness about refugees.

Treaty Center dedicates June to the environment

On Saturday, June 8, the first event took place by teaching the people all about the importance of recycling and the environment, from 11am to 4pm. In Addition, this event will be followed by environmental themed poetry and voice workshops on June 15. Then, they'll play the 'Pick Up Pollution' game on Saturday, June 22, where you can win rewards for fishing out rubbish. The fourth and final activity is set for Saturday, June 29, and will include recycled arts and crafts, including bee nesting tubes to take home and use in the garden.

Unexploded WW2 bomb discovered

People from Wembley have discovered an unexploded bomb. Officers were called to Drury Way at 8.35am on Friday (June 7) following a report that an unexploded shell had been discovered. Police and specialist teams descended on the scene and managed to remove a partially unexploded WW2 bomb. The operation saw road closures put in place, with several bus services diverted as a result.

Readathon®

Reading to help children in hospital

This year, we are having a reading marathon and we are attempting to raise money for children in hospital. There will be a prize for the person who reads the most books. You should find family and adult friends who are willing to sponsor you for every book you read.

!THE BIG BATTERY HUNT COMPETITION!

Well done for entering into the Big Battery Hunt! If you are the one with the most batteries, you'll receive a massive surprise, so don't miss out on this opportunity. What this is really for, is that we used so many batteries, the planet is getting radiated. For that we are recycling the batteries we are using in our battery boxes so we can save the planet!

Growth-Mindset quote of the week:

Don't let what you cannot do interfere with what you can do.

-John Wooden

Question of the Week

If you could make
one massive wish,
what would it be and why?

Send your answers to Mrs
Gleeson. Use facts and thinking maps in your answers.

Language of the Month: Konkani

Welcome – svaagata

Goa (गोवा) is a state in the Republic of India. It is India's smallest state. It has the second smallest number of people. The total area is 1,430 mi<sup>2</sup> (3,702 km<sup>2</sup>), It is on the west coast of India, in the region known as the Konkan. The state of Maharashtra is its neighbor to the north, and Karnataka to the east and south. There are 7.4 million native speakers.

How many children can you find in the school who can speak Konkani?

Rights Respecting

Article 2 - All children have these rights, no matter who they are, where they live, what their parents do, what language they speak, what their religion is, whether they are a boy or girl, what their culture is, whether they have a disability, whether they are rich or poor. No child should be treated unfairly on any basis.

Article 30 - You have the right to practice your own culture, language and religion - or any you choose. Minority and indigenous groups need special protection of this right

Remember to take great care crossing the roads
when moving between and around the schools.
Always use the crossing points.

Team points

Green is in the lead with 71 points. Next up, red is with 66 points. Following on, comes yellow in third position and last of all blue team with 55 points.

Article of the Month

Article 38 of the UNCRC- You have the right to PROTECTION from war. Children under 15 cannot be forced to go into the army.

Some facts:

Since the war started in South Sudan, UNICEF has helped 6000 children find their families again.

After all the fighting in Syria, in 2018 UNICEF helped 1.8 million children get back to school.

Remember:

- These rights apply to everybody under the age of 18.
- These rights are universal. This means they apply to all children, no matter where they live, what their religion is, if they have a disability or not, if they are a boy or a girl, whether they are rich or poor.
- These rights are unconditional. This means there is nothing you can do to have your rights taken away from you.

COMPETITION TIME!

Create a poster to tell everyone about this right. Are there any places in our world where children are not able to enjoy this right?

Please send entries to the school office by the end of the month.

Merits:

Merits are awarded for outstanding pieces of work or behaviour. Work must be AMAZING to win a merit!

Three Merits = One white Badge

Three White Badges = One Team Badge

Three Team Badges = One Gold Badge
