New Glowing Plants may light up Future Homes

Some scientists in California, America have all decided that the way of the future will be guided by glowing flowers and plants. According to these fellow scientists, the street lamps of the future will no longer be made by electricity, but yes, glowing plants. These light-emitting plants, which were first created by MIT researchers in 2017, are not genetically made to produce light. Instead, they are infused with tiny particles, similar to how fire flies function.

New Scotland football manager

Steve Clarke is now the next manager of the Scotland men's football team and for reaching Scotland's qualified campaign in Euro 2020. He was born on 29th August 1963 and he played for St Mirren, Chelsea and the Scotland National team. Scotland must be quite proud to have Steve Clarke as their football manager.

Playground buddies return to KS2

It has been a while since our playground buddies. They will now return to help solve any problems we have at breaktime and lunchtime.

Mrs. Murphy had a marvellous meeting with them in Amethyst on Monday afternoon and got out new badges. We'd appreciate the hard word they had taken during the last period of playground buddies and some old ones came back to life after those buddies weren't around for some time.

Year 3 galleries

The Year 3's have been to the Roald Dahl gallery. As a part of their literacy focus on the wonderful author Roald Dahl, and as part of their Roman project that they are going to the Bucks Museum . First, they learnt how Roald Dahl started writing stories for young children and how he is the author today. Secondly, they learnt about the life of a Roman Soldier. It was fascinating!

Chelsea Flower Show

At the Royal Hospital, in Chelsea, many people have decided that the children in the hospital, should have some fun. As a result, they have tried to make a flower show for all the children in the Royal Hospital. Even the Duke & Duchess of Cambridge's children, who were at the stream had so much fun...!

Kingston University evacuated over 'WWII bomb' find

Part of a university in south west London has been evacuated after a suspected unexploded World War Two bomb was found on a nearby building site. Students at Kingston University London had to leave part of the campus as the police investigated. The Met Police said it was called at 09:15 and had since asked for help from the Ministry of Defence. A police was in place in Fassett Road and surrounding streets, Kingston Council said. Kingston University have been fascinated by the find. A spokesman added: "It will be closed for the rest of the day. All staff and students based at Penrhyn Road may go home."

Reading to help children in hospital

This year, we are having a reading marathon and we are attempting to raise money for children in hospital. There will be a prize for the person who reads the most books. You should find family and adult friends who are willing to sponsor you for every book you read.

!THE BIG BATTERY HUNT COMPETITION!

Well done for entering into the Big Battery Hunt! If you are the one with the most batteries, you'll receive a massive surprise, so don't miss out on this opportunity. What this is really for, is that we used so many batteries, the planet is getting radiated. For that we are recycling the batteries we are using in our battery boxes so we can save the planet!

Rights Respecting

Article 2 - All children have these rights, no matter who they are, where they live, what their parents do, what language they speak, what their religion is, whether they are a boy or girl, what their culture is, whether they have a disability, whether they are rich or poor. No child should be treated unfairly on any basis.

Article 30 - You have the right to practice your own culture, language and religion - or any you choose. Minority and indigenous groups need special protection of this right

Article of the Month

Article 38 of the UNCRC- You have the right to PROTECTION from war. Children under 15 cannot be forced to go into the army.

Some facts:

Since the war started in South Sudan, UNICEF has helped 6000 children find their families again.

After all the fighting in Syria, in 2018 UNICEF helped 1.8 million children get back to school.

Remember:

- These rights apply to everybody under the age of 18.
- These rights are universal. This means they apply to all children, no matter where they live, what their religion is, if they have a disability or not, if they are a boy or a girl, whether they are rich or poor.
- These rights are unconditional. This means there is nothing you can do to have your rights taken away from you.

COMPETITION TIME!

Create a poster to tell everyone about this right. Are there any places in our world where children are not able to enjoy this right?

Please send entries to the school office by the end of the month.

Merits:

Merits are awarded for outstanding pieces of work or behaviour. Work must be AMAZING to win a merit!
