Year 5 and 6's Chertsey Museum Trip

On Wednesday, 25th September, Year 6 went to Chertsey Museum to learn more about their topic, World War II. They arrived there on coach. When they got there, they had to put on identification tags, so that they knew who they were. They sat down in the main area, and made gas masks. After that, they learned more about WW2, and the struggles people had to face during this period. Everybody had a great time and learned a lot about it in the process.

European Languages Day Assembly

Yesterday, we had an assembly about European Languages Day. It is celebrated on 26th September. It is to celebrate all the official European languages. In total, there are 23 official European languages. Some of the languages explored, were Spanish, Danish and Polish.

Ed Sheeran designs new Music Badge for Blue Peter.

The new music badge for Blue Peter has been launched, and it has been created by the singer, Ed Sheeran. The badge will officially be launched on Thursday 26th September. The badge itself is a celebration of all things musical, and is also part of a collaboration with BBC Music Day. BBC Music Day is to celebrate the power of music, and to change lives in the process. Events are taking place all over the UK

Woman swam English Channel four times

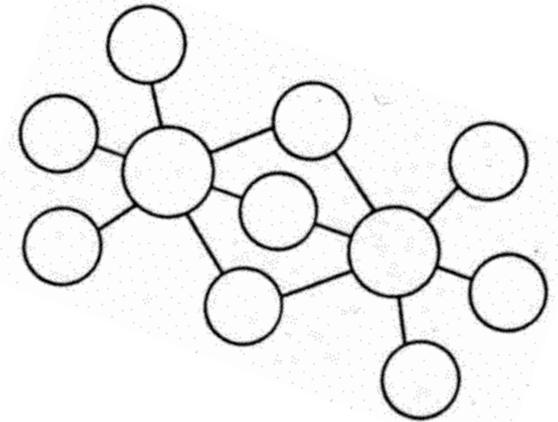

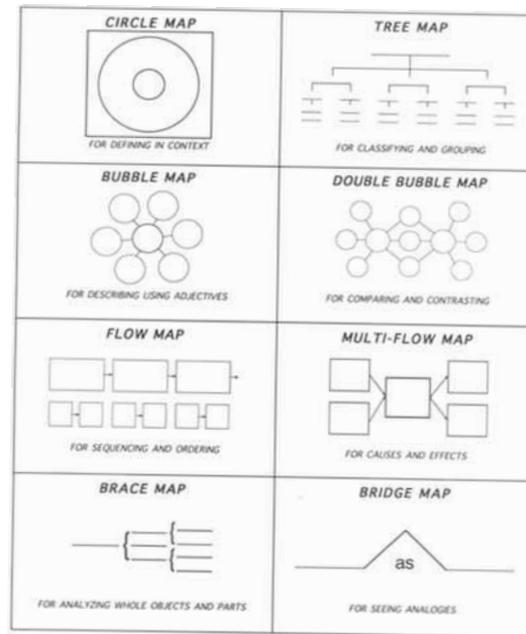

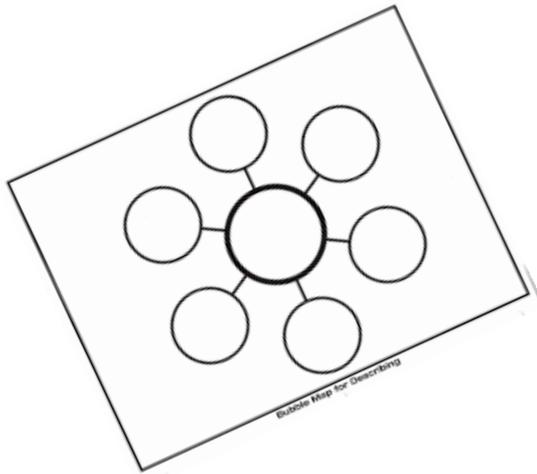

A woman named, Sarah Thomas, from Colorado, America, swam the English Channel four times! Not only that, but she did this non-stop, meaning no rest, or break, for 54 hours! Her route, was from Dover, to the edge of France, four times. Sarah Thomas stated, at the end of her swim, "I didn't think I was strong enough to complete it, but I endured on, and didn't give up." It should have been 80 miles, but she actually ended up swimming 130 miles approximately, 50 miles more than it should have been. As you can see, to achieve your goals, you need to not give up, and be determined all the time, just like Sarah was, on this epic swim.

Thinking Skills

These are called the thinking maps. Usually these are put in your classrooms to think using logical skills inside your brain.

There are other ways for people to organize their thinking and share their thoughts and process with others.
