The Café made entirely out of cardboard!

This new cafe in India is proving that cardboard can be used for more than just boxes. The Cardboard Cafe is a restaurant in Mumbai that is made entirely out of cardboard. Except for the kitchen area, everything in this cafe from the tables and walls to the light decoration and menu holders are made from recyclable cardboard. The cafe was designed by Nuru Karim. Nuru clarified, " I think the idea was to literally think outside the cardboard box,".

Prehistoric stone carved with horses was found in France

A stone, believed to be 12,000 years old was found in France. It was found when archaeologists were found south-western Angoulême district, north of Bordeaux, and was agreed to be an extraordinary find. The markings were found on both sides of the sandstone. The stone was said to be 25cm long, 18cm wide and 3cm thick. The stones will be seen by the public on 14th June.

Language of the Month: Konkani

Welcome – svaagata

Goa (गोवा) is a state in the Republic of India. It is India's smallest state. It has the second smallest number of people. The total area is 1,430 mi² (3,702 km²), It is on the west coast of India, in the region known as the Konkan. The state of Maharashtra is its neighbor to the north, and Karnataka to the east and south. There are 7.4 million native speakers.

How many children can you find in the school who can speak Konkani?

Rights Respecting

Article 2 - All children have these rights, no matter who they are, where they live, what their parents do, what language they speak, what their religion is, whether they are a boy or girl, what their culture is, whether they have a disability, whether they are rich or poor. No child should be treated unfairly on any basis.

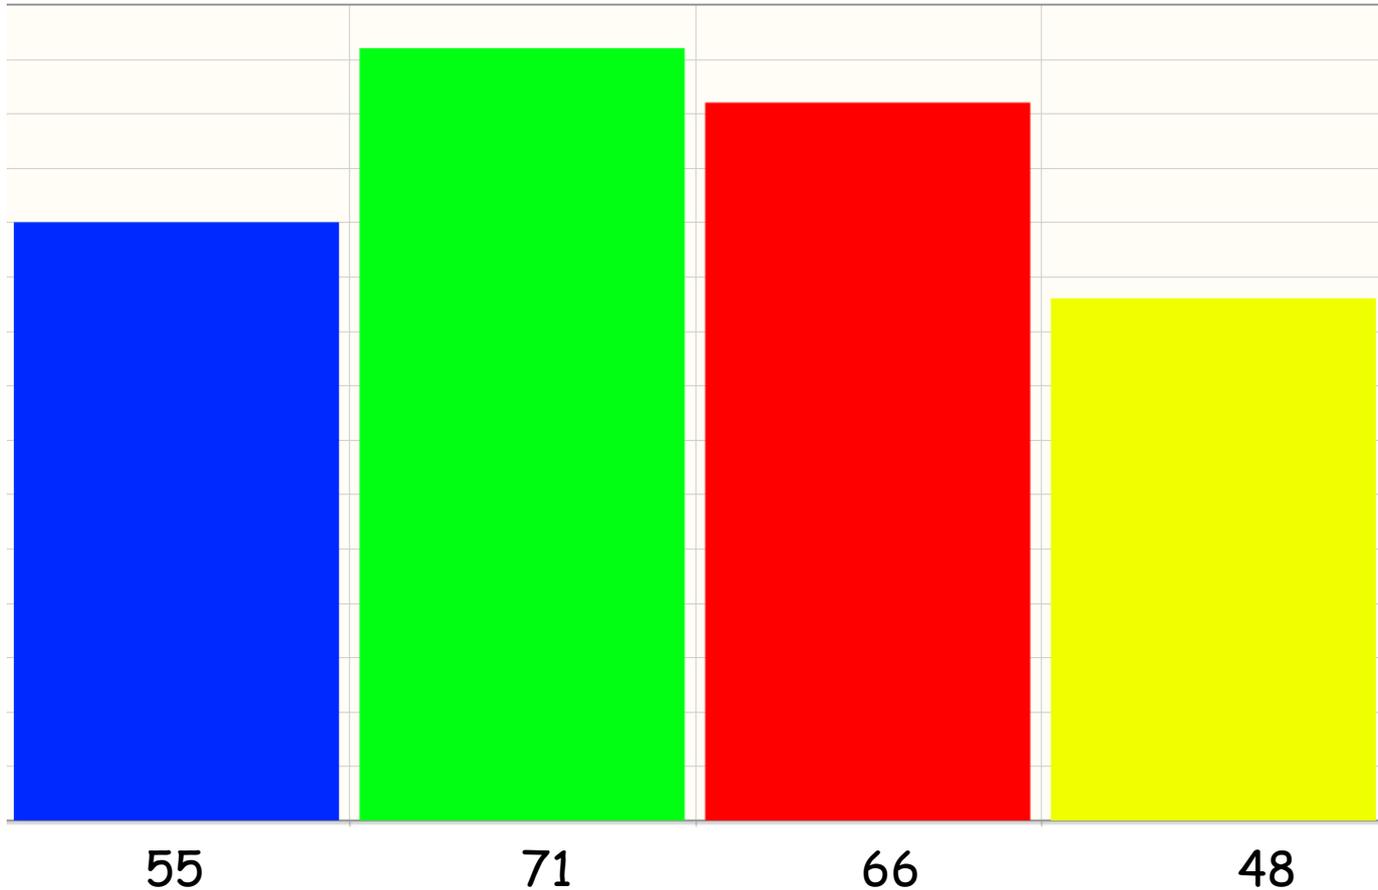

Article 30 - You have the right to practice your own culture, language and religion - or any you choose. Minority and indigenous groups need special protection of this right

Article of the Month

Article 38 of the UNCRC- You have the right to PROTECTION from war. Children under 15 cannot be forced to go into the army.

Some facts:

Since the war started in South Sudan, UNICEF has helped 6000 children find their families again.

After all the fighting in Syria, in 2018 UNICEF helped 1.8 million children get back to school.

Remember:

- These rights apply to everybody under the age of 18.
- These rights are universal. This means they apply to all children, no matter where they live, what their religion is, if they have a disability or not, if they are a boy or a girl, whether they are rich or poor.
- These rights are unconditional. This means there is nothing you can do to have your rights taken away from you.

COMPETITION TIME!

Create a poster to tell everyone about this right. Are there any places in our world where children are not able to enjoy this right?

Please send entries to the school office by the end of the month.

Merits:

Merits are awarded for outstanding pieces of work or behaviour. Work must be AMAZING to win a merit!
