Have aliens made contact with humans?

A telescope in Canada discovered mysterious signals coming from a distant galaxy 1.5 million light years away. No one knows the cause of these sudden radio blasts. Scientists wonder whether these signals are coming from an inhabited planet or from natural incidents; these incidents can be exploding stars, stars with strong magnetic fields or stars merging together. There are many theories. What may have happened ?

Bluebottle invasion shuts beaches in Australia.

Bluebottles are a species of fish very alike to jellyfishes. They have no spines and painful stings. Due to the sting, several beaches in Queensland- Australia- have been needed to be closed. Over the weekend nearly 300 The sting is mildly painful but even if you get bitten not to worry as the bite is not harmful.

Many of them have made incredulous amounts of progress during the term and winter break. Jaydeep, from Obsidian Class said " I really enjoy swimming as it is so much fun! I have learnt so much thanks to the instructions.

New Year Resolutions Assembly

Yesterday, Mrs Neal had an assembly all about New Year and the resolutions we could make. First, we talked about when New Year is celebrated and how people around the world celebrate it. Then we talked about how some places celebrate New Year before and after us. Finally, we arrived at New Year resolutions, and what they typically are. We even heard some New Year resolutions from other people.

Creams in Hounslow goes under complete refurbishment

After a low food hygiene rating, Creams has been told to make a major improvements. They needed to improve their: preparation, cooking, re-heating, cooling and storage. Creams was rated 1/5 stars which means it's necessary to improve straight away. The Creams owner, comments: "We always take our hygiene seriously and as our top priority. However, in this occasion our standards did fall, and I have taken strict actions for those who didn't follow basic protocols. Any kind of serious or minor issues that occur in our store, we always take actions immediately and effectively and inform our head office as well so they can stay in the loop."
