Ramadan

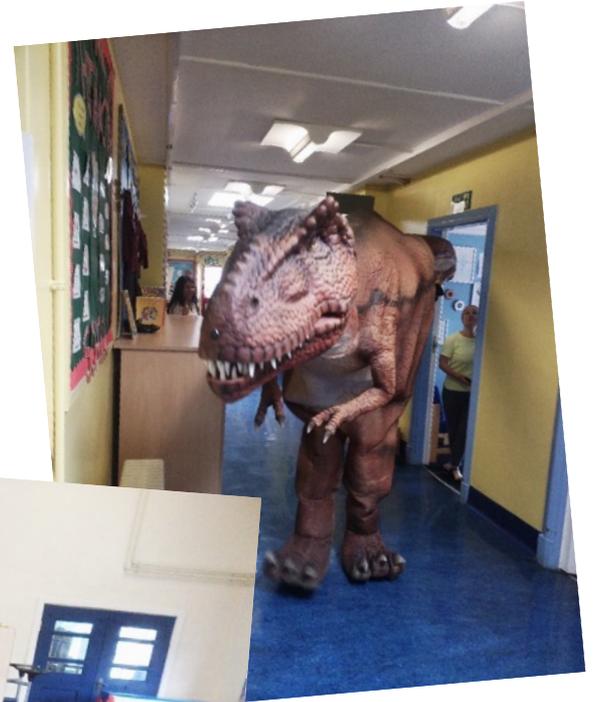

Many religious festivals are celebrated around the world. Some annual celebrations are Diwali, Christmas and Easter. These are celebrated by Christians and Hindus. Ramadan is celebrated by Muslims who also celebrate Eid. During Ramadan, Muslims fast and read prayers. They can't eat from sunrise to sunset. However it is optional to fast between 3 and 24 hours in total.

Two-headed snake is family's new pet

A family in Louisiana, USA have an unusual pet - a two-headed snake called Filé and Gumbo. Tanea Janusz was given the Western Rat snake by a friend who found it in his backyard, and her family decided to keep it. Two-headed snakes have separate brains and heads but one body, which is caused by a deformity when they are developing in the egg.
